

The following REPTILES are representative of the many species found in the Woods:

Lizards and Skinks

- Fence Lizard
- 5-Lined Skink (Blue Tailed Skink)
- Broadhead Skink
- Green or Carolina Anole
- 6-Lined Racerunner

Turtles

- Box Turtle
- Mud Turtle
- Musk Turtle
- Yellowbelly Slider Turtle
- Snapping Turtle

Snakes

- Black Racer (36" to 66")
- Black Rat (42" to 85")
- Brown (9" to 18)
- Canebreak Rattlesnake (uncommon)
- Coachwhip (48" to 94")
- Copperhead (24" to 45")
- Corn (30" to 72")
- Cottonmouth (uncommon)
- Southeastern Crowned (8" to 12")
- Earth (7" to 12")
- Rough Green (22" to 36")
- Eastern Hognose 20" to 47")
- Eastern Kingsnake (36" to 69")
- Scarlet Kingsnake (14" to 27")
- Garter (18" to 42")
- Pine (42" to 72")
- Ringneck (10" to 20")
- Scarlet (14" to 26")
- Water Snakes (30" to 60")

AMPHIBIANS

Frogs

- Gray Tree Frog
- Green Tree Frog
- Southern Toad
- Bullfrog
- Green Frog
- Leopard Frog

Salamanders

- Marble salamander
- Slimy salamander
- Three-lined salamander
- Southern two-lined salamander
- Red-spotted newt